Run by data engineers, for data engineers

Subject: Request for approval to attend DataEngBytes 2024

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to request your support for my attendance at DataEngBytes 2024, a leading data engineering conference focused on data engineering best practices, innovations and real life solutions.

Date: Friday, 27 Sep 2024

Time: 9:00 AM - 5:30 PM AWST

Venue: Perth Ritz-Carlton, 6000

Cost: $250 (general admission)

I believe that participating in this event will greatly benefit the team and company as well as my own professional growth and development. The conference offers an opportunity to gain insights from leading industry figures and practitioners in the data engineering space locally and internationally.

Here are some reasons why I'm interested in attending:

- Enhanced professional skills: The sessions are designed to upgrade technical skills and provide practical solutions that we can apply to our work.
- Networking: This conference offers an opportunity to connect with highly skilled and talented professionals, leading to knowledge exchange, potential collaborations and recruitment opportunities for our team in future.
- Innovative solutions: We could explore cutting-edge approaches to problem-solving, aiming to streamline operations and boost efficiency and profitability. Previous sessions have delved into how companies utilised various data orchestration tools to meet their specific data requirements, ultimately enhancing efficiency and cost-effectiveness.
